2016 CALIFORNIA MODEL CODES ADOPTED AND IN

EFFECT ON JANUARY 1, 2017 FOR THE CITY OF PERRIS

On July 1, 2016 The State of California Adopted the 2016 California Building, Residential, Mechanical, Electrical, Plumbing, Fire, Energy, Green, Administrative and Referenced Standard Codes. These codes become effective in the City of Perris on January 1, 2017.

What this means to you.

All Plans submitted for Plan Review on or after January 1, 2017 will have to comply with the 2016 versions of the California Building, Residential, Mechanical, Electrical, Plumbing, Fire, Energy, Green, Administrative and Referenced Standard Codes and with the City of Perris adoptive Code Ordinance.

Any Plan reviews that have been submitted prior to January 1, 2017 can still comply with the 2013 Versions of the California Codes only if the 180 day plan review time frame has not expired. All Tract developments who have NOT paid for and taken out a permit Prior to the January 1, 2017 deadline, for all their remaining house plans must re-submit their plans for a new Plan review that will have to comply with the 2016 California Adopted Codes and new Plan Review Fees will have to be paid.
