Perris Mayor Seeking Help to Locate Missing Dog

Perris Mayor Daryl Busch's pet dog, Percy, disappeared from his home Saturday and Busch is seeking help from the public to locate and return the animal as soon as possible.

Percy, the missing 2-year-old Pug belonging to Perris Mayor Daryl Busch and his wife, Kay.

Percy, a 2-year-old Pug, got out of the home of Mayor Busch and his wife, Kay, about 8:30 p.m. Saturday. When they went looking for her, neighbors on Metz Road said two men in a silver Ford Explorer stopped and picked up Percy before leaving the area.

Mayor Busch drove through surrounding streets in the neighborhood but could not locate the Explorer.

He contacted Perris Police and made a report.

Perris Mayor Daryl Busch is seeking the public's help in locating his missing dog, Percy.

Perris animal control officers also have been notified and are on the lookout for Percy.

Mayor Busch asks that anyone with information about the dog drop by his residence, 140 Metz Road, or call the home telephone at 951-657-2567.
