Students Receive Hispanic Association of Small Business Scholarships

Perris Mayor Daryl Busch (second from right) and Armando Hurtado, president of the Hispanic Association of Small Businesses, stand with winners of $500 college scholarships in a contest sponsored by the business group. The contest winners include Wendy Romero, Rancho Verde High School; Angel Carrillo, Perris High School; Fredi Resendiz Ugalde, Heritage High School and Devora Crystal Siquin, Citrus Hill High School. Contest winners had to maintain a 3.5-grade point average, perform voluntary community service and submit an essay. The winners were recognized at the beginning of the June 14 City Council meeting.

Scholarship winners and their parents stand with Perris Mayor Daryl Busch and Armando Hurtado, president of the Hispanic Association of Small Businesses.
