Perris Student's Volunteering Earns Honors and Eagle Scout Rank

Perris High School student Spencer Allison receives his Certificate of Appreciation for completing a community improvement project that also earned him the rank of Eagle Scout.

Perris high school student Spencer Allison was honored Sept. 28 with a Certificate of Appreciation from Mayor Daryl Busch for completing a community improvement project that also earned him the highest honor in Scouting—the rank of Eagle Scout. Spencer, 16 a junior at California Military Institute, installed 100-feet of fencing, two bird baths and two benches at the Orange Empire Railway Museum in April. Spencer also has volunteered at City Hall for five years, assisting Records Clerk Judy Haughney with various tasks and collecting news accounts about the City and organizing them into a scrapbook for future generations.
