Big Bicycle Raffle at Health Fair

New, gleaming and ready for raffle.

The City of Perris has purchased more than 60 bicycles to residents who participate in Saturday's (April 25) health fair on the City Hall Campus. The new bicycles, purchased from Wal-Mart in Perris, were paid for by donations from corporate sponsors supporting the third annual health fair, part of the ongoing Live Well Perris Health-Eating Active-Living campaign.

Bicycles purchased for the City of Perris' third annual Health Fair are displayed in front of the City's iconic fountain. The bikes will be raffled off Saturday, April 25.

The health fair begins at 10 a.m. and includes screenings for diabetes, cholesterol and high-blood pressure, healthy-food snacks, exercise demonstrations, a rock wall for kids, entertainment and healthy-living tips.

Perris Mayor Daryl Busch will lead the opening ceremonies. Elementary school student Fabian Guerrero will sing the National Anthem. Mayor Pro-Tem Tonya Burke will lead a Zumba class.

Deputy City Manager Darren Madkin, Administrative Services Manager Isabel Carlos, City Manager Richard Belmudez and Assistant City Manager Ron Carr stand in front of the bicycles that will be raffled off during the April 25 health fair.

The health fair is one of a trio of events taking place April 25 at the City Hall Campus, 101 North D Street. The Perris Elementary School District is hosting its annual 5-kilometer fun run while the American Cancer Society is sponsoring its yearly 24-hour Relay for Life. More than 100 vendors will join the festivities and City officials expect all three events to draw up to 5,000 participants. Radio Lazer will broadcast live from the events.

More information about the health fair, fun run and relay for life is available at www.cityofperris.org and the City's facebook pages, Perris Today and Hoy en Perris.

Perris City Councilman Julio Rodriguez (third from right) stands with City staff members Matthew Soto, Rosalba Bonilla and Gilbert Banuelos surrounded by bicycles the City will raffle off April 25 during its third annual health fair.
